

Connecting to ibmCloud Server Using WinSCP

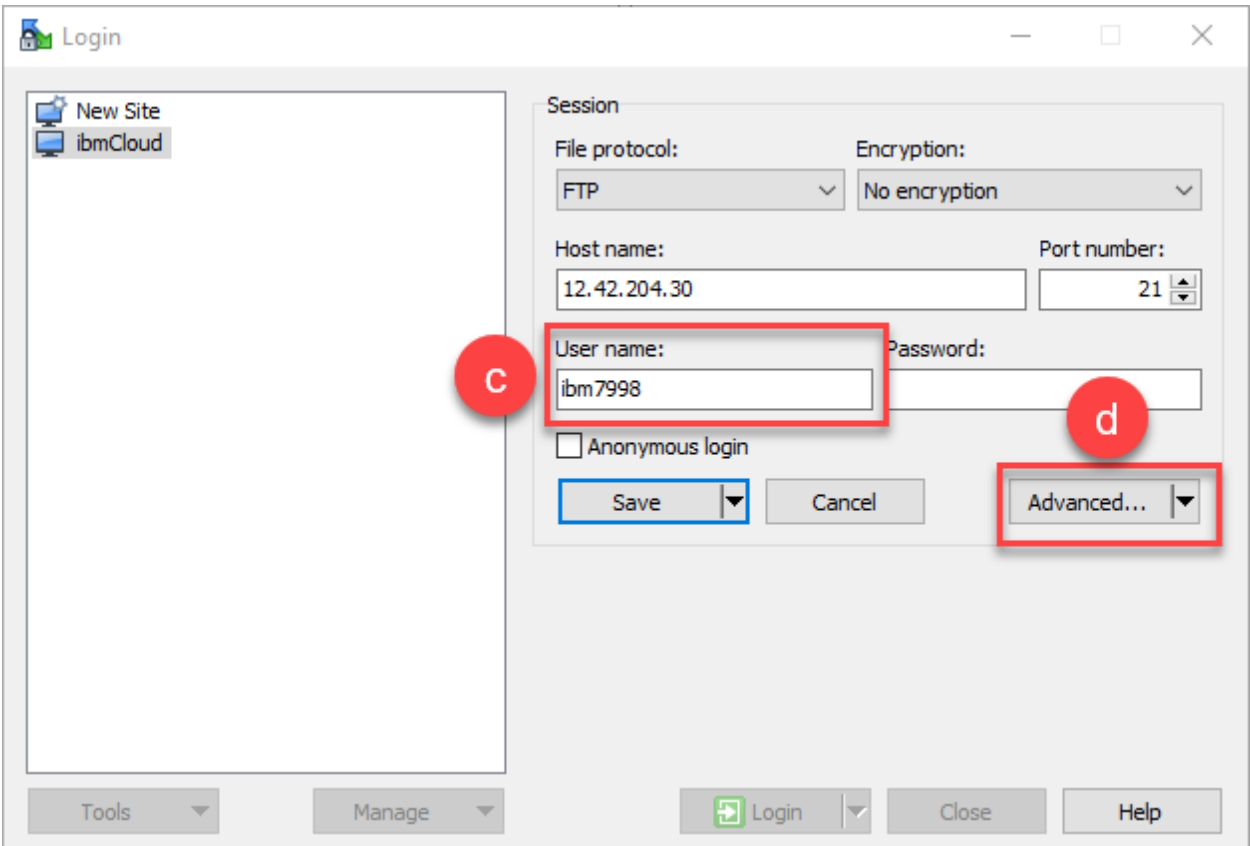

Step 1: Open WinSCP

Step 2: Edit the Login screen

- a. Make sure ibmCloud is selected
- b. Click Edit

- c. Change the User name field to your User name
- d. Click Advanced

Connecting to ibmCloud Server Using WinSCP

e. Click Directories

f. Change the Remote directory to your directory

g. Change the Local directory to the location of your files on F drive

h. Click OK

Connecting to ibmCloud Server Using WinSCP

i. Click Save

j. Click Login

Connecting to ibmCloud Server Using WinSCP

- k. Enter your Password
- l. Click OK

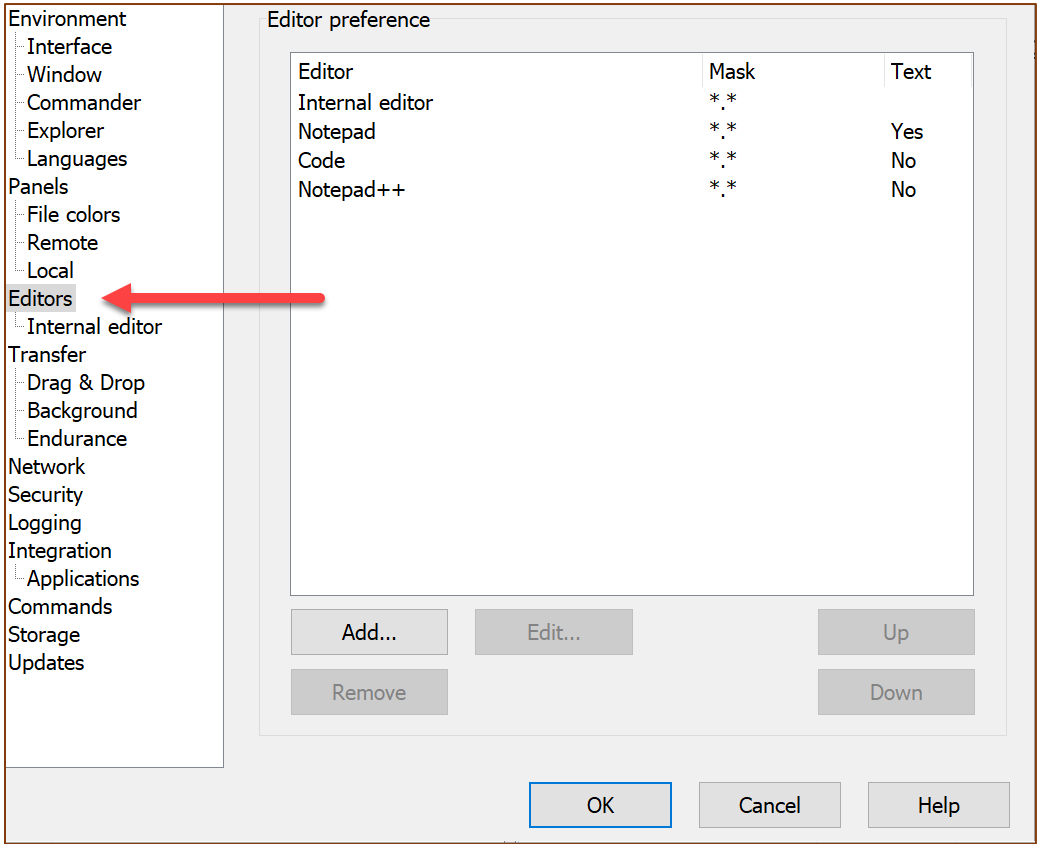

The left panel displays your local folder on F drive

The right panel displays your directory on the IBMcloud server

Integration with text Editors

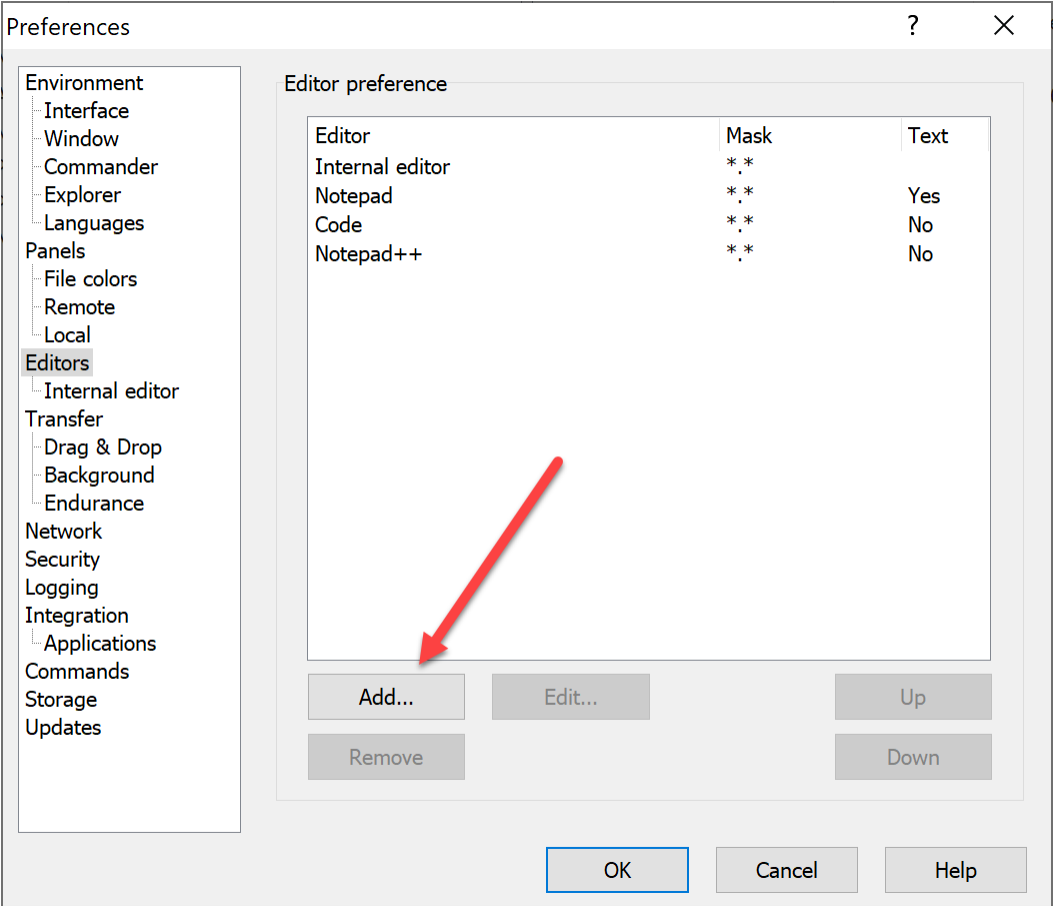

https://winscp.net/eng/docs/integration_editor#notepad

Step 1: Click Files / Edit / Configure

Connecting to ibmCloud Server Using WinSCP

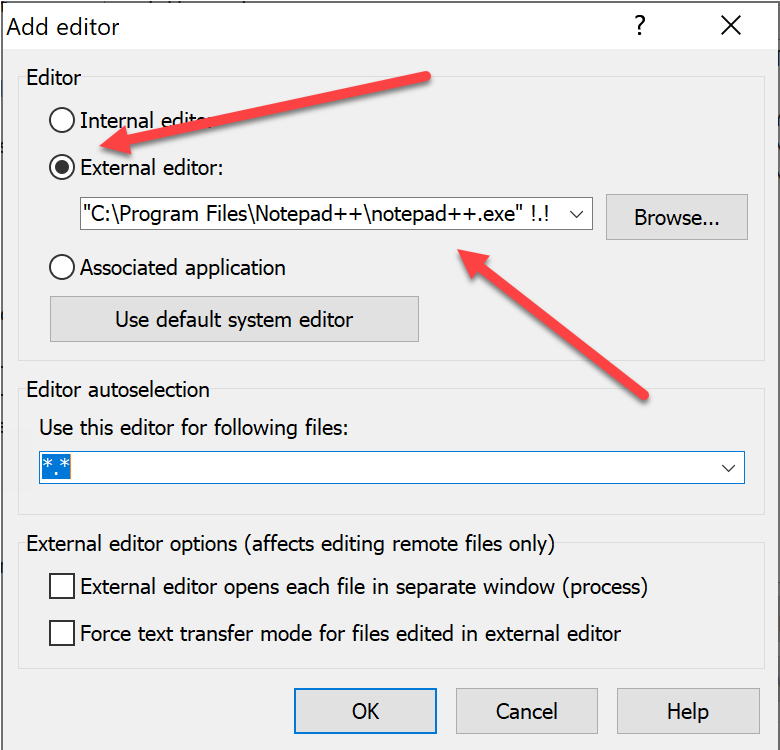

Click Add

Click External editor

Fill in the path name as specified at

https://winscp.net/eng/docs/integration_editor#notepad

Click OK

Click OK